FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HURON COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION AWARDS $30,904 IN COMMUNITY GRANTS TO SEVERAL HURON COUNTY NON-PROFITS

Norwalk, Ohio, October 2, 2024 – At its September Board of Directors meeting, Huron County Community Foundation awarded $30,904 in charitable community grants to several Huron County non-profits. Projects awarded fill critical needs, create opportunities for youth, and further contribute to a thriving community.

Huron County Community Foundation’s Board of Directors identified priorities around the youth of the community, whether that be the food that nourishes them and their families, offering art and cultural experiences to expand their world view, or exercise opportunities to strengthen their bodies.

Organizations and Projects Awarded in the 2024 Round 2 Grants Cycle

- Artists' Open Studio, AOS 34 East Main St. Studio Renovation–Equipment Expenses, $3,804
- Back to the Wild, Inc., Specialized Care Needs for Orphaned Wildlife, $2,000
- Cancer Services of Erie County, Huron County Cancer Care Project, $2,500
- City of Norwalk Parks & Recreation Department, Veterans’ Memorial Lake Park Amphitheatre Concert Series & Community Programs $2,600
